PRESIDENT'S CHAT

It's only September and so far this year a ship carrying a tour group of ours sank off the coast of Greece, we have had to find new meeting places, we created a new newsletter printing process, found new long term parking facilities, postal rates increased and we learned we will probably get no more financial support from IBM for mailing the newsletter when the current funds run out. Yet the Club is overcoming all these obstacles and never has had more members or more money in the treasury. Casey Stengel once said "The game ain't over til the fat lady sings." Let's hope whatever else is in store for us is not insurmountable.

The newsletter-mailing crisis has come to an end. Thanks to the efforts of Ed Mueller, Clara De Paul, the Travel Committee and other Club members, we have a mailing process acceptable to the US Postal Service. Almaden Research Labs (ARL) has permitted us to use a conference room at their location thereby resolving the meeting room dilemma.

Again I would like to emphasize the need for us to eventually distribute the newsletter via the Internet. Simply send Ed Mueller an e-mail with your e-mail address and your name as it appears on the mailing label. Then each month you will receive a notice your newsletter is ready. You simply click on the address and as if by magic your copy of the newsletter will appear. With another click you can print the newsletter. Or you can just view it online.

Our 21st Annual Meeting will be held at Silicon Valley Labs (SVL) Cafeteria on Bailey Avenue on October 25 at 2:00 PM . Please try to attend. Refreshments will be served and your participation would be greatly appreciated. I am looking forward to seeing you all.

Have a great Labor Day Weekend.

Sunshine Report

Well, I haven't heard from any of you, what is wrong? Has the "cat" got your tongue? I did hear from one of my good friends that she had a by-pass, and is doing well, so well that she doesn't want to stay home any more, she wants to go, go.

I also heard that another friend hurt her toe. Well, I can tell you that is no laughing matter--I have broken all my toes on one foot, and does that smart!

Well, I have one more to report on: Ray Thompson. One week ago he passed out on the kitchen floor, and all I could think of was stroke. Thank goodness it wasn't, but it was pretty bad. He was running a temperature of 103 due to a kidney infection. We didn't know any thing was wrong because Ray never says anything, and he wanted to go to Reno the next day. I am so thankful it happened at home. He was in the hospital for a little over a week, and he is now home. They got all the infection out, and fever is gone. Believe me, prayers do help a lot.

thanks to all do take care,

Topsy Thompson,
the Sunshine Lady!!

Wigged Out

Sunday, November 18, 2007, 2:00 PM Show

Wigged Out is a uniquely original, fast paced, singing and dancing musical comedy experience. The all new production involves a mysterious secret at the hair salon--a secret at Victoria's Hair On Stage salon in Danville. This East Bay musical comedy performs in this most unique theater venue.

At all Wigged Out shows we expect a healthy dose of icons, celebrities and household products showing up on stage. At times, the audience becomes part of the show. It's a fun afternoon, lots of good laughs. The Contra Costa Times stated, "You'll hurt yourself laughing and be amazed at the talent."

Prior to the show, we will have lunch at the Brass Door near the theater in Danville. Lunch choices will be roast prime rib or roasted rosemary chicken.

The price is $90.00 per person which includes the show, lunch, motorcoach and all gratuities.

This event is hosted by the IBM San Jose Retirement Club and is open to all IBM Club and QCC members and friends.

SeniorNet Computer Courses

By now, you are probably tired of reading requests to receive this newsletter via the Internet. I don't blame you. But someday, the "printed on paper" version will probably be eliminated or cost extra. Nobody knows exactly what or when this will happen. If you have a computer, send and receive e-mail and know what "left click" means, you are ready for this change.

But if your life is pleasant because you have no computer, or don't know how to use one, then you are not quite ready. Becoming a computer user is pretty easy for kids. I teach seniors to use computers so I know it is not so easy for many of them. But it is possible. The SeniorNet Learning Centers in San Jose and around the country offer courses for seniors. There are intermediate level courses for folks that already know the fundamentals, but more importantly, there are courses for absolute beginners. These courses are taught on an ongoing basis, all year long and start 5 times per year. Registration for the next round of classes is on Saturday, October 6. If you think it is finally time to make your life only a little more unpleasant by becoming a computer user, sign up! Some seniors even think the courses are fun!

Hikes

San Francisco Stairway Walk Friday, September 28, 2007, 10:00 AM

If it's September, it must be San Francisco. At least that's the IBM hiking group tradition. This year's San Francisco walk will be unusual in that it's an urban trek, almost all on paved streets and walkways. But oh, what walkways these are! We will use the city's stairways to navigate hills that are too steep for cars. When we scouted the walk, we counted a total of 550 stairs going up, probably about the same going down. So bring your most comfortable walking shoes and tune up your knees for this challenging walk.

We found the walk in a delightful book called "Stairway Walks in San Francisco." If you have access to the book, it is walk #11. Our route takes us through Golden Gate Heights, an area south of Golden Gate Park. It's a quiet residential neighborhood with a lovely park and great views. When we started the walk it was cold and foggy but by noon we could see Ocean Beach and downtown San Francisco.

Other than the stairways we'll navigate, your other challenge will be finding a place to park. We will be meeting on the corner of 15th and Lincoln, across the street from Golden Gate Park. We noted that there was available parking on Lincoln, with no time limit. Probably your best bet to get to the city will be the 280-19th Avenue route. When you get to Lincoln (just before Golden Gate Park), turn right and begin your search for a space. Carpooling is highly recommended! Carpoolers - meet at the normal place: Camden Park and Ride (Camden at 85), at 8:30 AM.

We didn't find a great place to stop for lunch, so we recommend bringing a snack and drink for munching along the way. Once we finish the walk there is a wide variety of restaurants nearby around 9th Avenue (we'll direct you) where you can replenish the calories you burned.

Garrapata State Park Hike Friday, October 19, 2007, 10:00 AM

Garrapata State Park is south of Carmel on Highway 1. Some of you who have gone on the Monterey Big Hike may be familiar with the area. We'll be hiking the Soberanes Canyon Trail located in the park. There aren't many places where you can see prickly pear cactus and redwood trees growing along the same trail, but that's what you'll find in Soberanes Canyon. The trail starts by following a year-round creek at the base of steep coastal hills, cutting through stands of willow, cactus, and chaparral. After ascending gently for a mile, you'll reach a cluster of redwoods and bay laurel perched beside the sandy pools of Soberanes Creek. From here, you can retrace your steps or forge onward, climbing much more steeply to Rocky Ridge Trail. Turn left to loop back, enjoying bird's-eye coastal views as you crisscross the high bluffs. We do plan to hike the entire loop, but if you want to do the shorter out and back route that's OK too. The 6 mile loop hike is rated strenuous (translation - hills). The 2-mile out and back is moderate. There are no picnic tables on the hike route, so we will probably just plunk down somewhere along the trail to eat lunch.

To reach Garrapata State Park, travel south to the Monterey Bay area. Then drive 7 miles on Highway 1 after you cross Rio Road in Carmel. The trailhead is on the east side of the highway near gate 13. Look for a line of cypress trees along the east side of the highway. A parking fee of $5 applies within the park area. Carpoolers should meet at the Camden park and ride (Camden and Highway 85) at 8:15 AM. See you there! Don't forget your lunch and water.

IBM Club Web Site for Retirees

In the past, in order to access the IBM Club web site, you had to be an IBM employee. Retirees could not access the site. Recently, IBM has made an IBM Club web site available for IBM retirees. It is a global web site containing information about IBM Clubs all over the world.

In order to access this web site, you must first register. Then you can subscribe to whatever IBM Club is closest to where you live or to multiple IBM Clubs. Our local club is the Silicon Valley IBM Club.

The address of the web site: www.ibm.com/ibm/ibmclub

Once you get there you will need to provide an e-mail address and provide a password in order to register. You must also specify which IBM Club you are interested in.

Swap'N'Shop

Do you remember the old Swap 'N' Shop board in the cafeteria? You could submit a 3x5 card and it would be posted describing the things you wanted to sell or buy. Well, it is now online. IBM employees and retirees can participate. On the first day, more than 100 items were posted and 10 times that number of employees browsed through the site.

Adopt-A-Highway

Thursday, August 9, 2007

Bob Schneider found a fire! In the Santa Teresa gores (those mini park areas between ramps). When Bob arrived, ready to capture litter, he saw smoke and went to investigate. He found a wind driven smoldering fire in the ground mulch of chipped wood. He cleared away the unburned material and then stomped out the fire. Just as he finished, a fire truck drove up and he pointed out the area to the firemen. The firemen used their hoses to wet the area down. Someone must have called the fire in. Aren't cell phones amazing!

System breakdown: some things have to be utilized to work. In the Almaden off ramp area, Barbara Warner and Tom Clarke discovered many unopened condom packages labeled Planned Parenthood.

There is some beautiful litter. Phyliss Chai found peacock feathers. Bob Rameriz said he had a ball 'cause he found a tennis ball and 2 golf balls. Bob Schneider rounded out his adventure by capturing 3 mangled license plates. John Czerniec bagged a big inflatable bat and then a 12"x16" inch flag on a dowel that he put in his back pocket as a talisman to keep him safe; he said it was his patriotic duty to protect our flag.

Finances: income for the day was $6.71. Jose Castaneda found a five dollar bill, a dime, and four pennies. Alice Czerneic discovered a dime. Tom Clarke brought in a quarter and a penny. John Warner thinks he found a child's savings when he picked up a plastic baggie containing a nickel and 100 pennies. Bob Schneider netted 5 cents, Mel Olsen a penny, and Doug Dean a dime. It was a big disappointment that a giant $100 dollar bill turned out to be a memo pad page. Our tailgate treat of watermelon cost 5 dollars so we netted $1.71 for the day.

14 volunteers filled 19 bags bringing our total to 2118 bags to date.

Schedule: meet in VTA Parking lot 8:45 a.m.

IBM Matching Grants

If you contribute to certain charitable institutions and organizations, IBM will match half your contribution if you are an IBM retiree. To take advantage of this IBM benefit, you must fill out the IBM Matching Grants form and mail it to the organization to which you are contributing. The form is available on the IBM web site for retirees, but it is hard to find. It is now on our club web site. The navigation panel on our home page has a link to the IBM Matching Grants form pdf file. It is a 2-page form. The second page gives the requirements the organization must satisfy in order to receive funds from IBM.

Thanks to Bonnie Home who reminded me about this benefit. If you have older forms, you should use the one on our web site. A year or two ago, the address where IBM receives these forms changed. If you have a form that has an address including "Six Forks Road" in Raleigh, you need the new address. It is on the second page of the form.

Again, our web site address is: www.sjpc.org/sjrc/

Par Tee Golf

Poppy Hills, August 27, 2007. This was our annual "Bob Slater Memorial Golf Tournament". Bob Slater was the person responsible for starting the Retirement Club golf tournaments. The "Shot-Of-The-Day" goes to Rollo Parsons. On hole #15, a 180 yard par three, Rollo recorded his first "Hole-in-One." Phenomenal shot, Rollo! (Note: This is the 2nd hole-in-one recorded in the 8½ years that I have been running the Retiree Club tournaments.) There were also some honorable mentions: On hole #18, a par 5, John Nauman chipped his 3rd shot into the cup for "eagle", and on hole #14, a par 4, Kathy La Scola "putted" her 4th shot from about 25 feet 'off' the green for par. Great shots, John & Kathy! The format of play was "Individual Play." We had a large turnout of 60 players. Here are the results:

1 / 62	Bill Bumgarner	2 / 63	Rich Hislip	3 / 66	Alex Lilley	3 / 66	Rich Hiser*
4 / 68	Marge Condensa	4 / 68	Andy La Scola	5 / 69	Gary Pyle
6 / 70	Bill Niffenegger	6 / 70	John Nauman	6 / 70	Kathy La Scola
7 / 71	Paul Koch	7 / 71	Tom Howell	7 / 71	Glenn Yuki
